Trees Atlanta Invites Photographers to Submit Images for “My Favorite Tree” Contest
All Entries Displayed in Public Photography Exhibit October 8- November 6, 2010

WHAT: Trees Atlanta invites Georgia photographers to enter the “My Favorite Tree” Photography Contest, sponsored by the Georgia Forestry Commission (please see GFC disclaimer at www.treesatlanta.org). The contest will culminate in a push pin photography exhibit at the Trees Atlanta Kendeda Center in conjunction with Atlanta Celebrates Photography. All entries will be accepted and displayed in the show.

Photographs will be judged in two age divisions, Youth (17 years and younger) and Adult (18 years and older). You may enter up to five (5) photos, unmated and unframed, and all photos must include at least one tree. Photos must be original images captured by the applicant, 3”x3” or larger and taken within the last three years. Photos may be in color, black-and-white, or sepia. Digital manipulation is permitted. Entrants are also invited to include a photo description (100-word limit) on a 5x7 note card, if desired. Please visit <http://www.treesatlanta.org/PhotographyContest.aspx> for complete contest rules and an application form. Incomplete entries will not be accepted.

WHEN: Contest Entries Accepted - February 19 through August 1, 2010
Photography Exhibit – October 8 through November 6, 2010

WHERE: Entries are submitted to: Trees Atlanta Photo Contest, Trees Atlanta Kendeda Center, 225 Chester Avenue, SE, Atlanta, GA 30316

The fall photography show will be held at the same location.

Trees Atlanta is a nationally recognized citizens group dedicated to protecting and improving Atlanta’s urban forest by planting, conserving and educating. Since 1985, Trees Atlanta has planted and distributed more than 75,000 trees. Trees Atlanta communicates with 4,500 citizens each week who care about trees and our community.
