Description

Enjoy a unique summer experience at Trees Atlanta’s Junior TreeKeeper Camp as a Junior Intern. Designed for rising 7th-12th graders, the program allows students an opportunity to become immersed in camp life for multiple weeks by assisting counselors with daily activities and developing their leadership skills working with campers. Each week, up to 6 Junior Interns spend their days riding up and down the Atlanta BeltLine’s Eastside Trail and helping to facilitate the environmental education of Junior TreeKeepers.

Camp staff asks for a minimum 2-week commitment from each Junior Intern out of the 8-week summer, providing space and opportunity for many applicants.

Junior Interns will:
- Aid Camp Counselors and Interns with daily tasks and activities such as arts and crafts, outdoor games and hikes, environmental lessons, and supervision of campers on bikes.
- Be a role model for younger campers.
- Help office staff with various upkeep and some administrative tasks.
- Develop leadership and fundamental professional skills under the mentorship of Trees Atlanta staff.

Requirements

- Rising 7th-12th grade
- Minimum 2-week commitment (Monday-Friday, 8:15am to 3:45pm)
- Strong bike rider (helmet required, personal bike preferred)
- Team player able to help and assist as needed
- Love for the outdoors and nature (camp takes place predominantly outside)
- Enjoy working with younger children
- Prior volunteer experience is helpful

Jr. Interns report to the Trees Atlanta TreeHouse (112 Krog Street, #7, Atlanta, GA 30307) and will work in various locations in and around the Atlanta BeltLine, BeltLine Arboretum, and short field trips in the city.
